Dearest Ceile —

There is so much I want to tell you that I just don't know how to begin — I do know that this year wouldn't have been perfect if it had not been for your loveable friendship — Really that is something I shall treasure all my life — All through this year just the little things you have said and done have been a sort of guiding post for me and I shall always remember them — As I sit here in the dear old chapter room I just can't realize that you and Janie won't be here next year — Ceile — we will miss you — so much — Every minute of the hour, every hour of the day — we will miss you — I shall never forget the good times we have had together this year. My thoughts go back to the fine nights we had in your room — The fine talks we had — I'll never forget them —

Now I'll tell you exactly what I think of you — you are the finest most sincere person anyone could ever wish for and if anyone should try to change you I would be right there ready to give them a sock in the eye — I'll never forget you Ceile and I'll always love you forever and forever — Be good don't forget me and Keep smiling
Frankie

Kill! I can't write a damn book but I shall feel what I am unable to say with a pen. It's going to seem funny not to see you back at this school. Don't ever say you don't love when you do toots be frank with your own heart. If we don't see each other for a long time Remember that I honestly think you're "tops" - Please come to Newport News to see me & for my sake write & tell me what you're doing. - Please forget 1936 up here - Dearest love Always.

THE CIRCUS

Here they come! With a gay march the Freshman Band smartly leads the grand parade. And what a noisy gang they are—top-heavy elephants and swaying giraffes and zebras, cake walking negroes, Popeye and his compatriots from Spinachovia, familiar folk from Mother Gooseland, and ridiculous clowns of every description. Around and around the big top they circle while the spectators cheer. Then as a nifty ring master steps out and snaps his whip, they disappear behind the scenes.

The master of ceremonies with his booming voice announcing the various acts from under a high top-hat sounds suspiciously like Will Scott. First the Freshman Band entertains as well known movie stars stroll out to perform a variety of clever numbers. Then the Sophomores present a group of negro songs with characteristic rhythm and melody. Next come the Juniors with their delightful Mother Goose act. Finally the Seniors, greeted by howls of amusement from the crowd, present scenes in the cafe of the famous Rough House where Wimpey, Popeye, Olive Oyl, Toar, and even Sweet Pea foregather in real funny paper style.

Hurrah! At last the grand climax has arrived—the coronation of the Circus Queen. But who will be the Queen? Everyone is breathless. The ring master announces her approach. A roar of applause greets the appearance of Her Majesty's float. It is a lovely swan, sailing amid six beautiful water lilies. But the Queen herself is veiled. Who can she be? The waiting throng can hardly breathe! The suspense is terrific! But the ring master comes to our rescue. Forward he steps. He throws back the veil and triumphantly crowns the Queen of the Circus—She is Addie Norfleet.

The Sophomores receive the award for the best act. Then the performers disperse and the crowd moves down upon the floor. There it's bingo, cold drinks, side shows. The rhythm of the Hampden-Sydney orchestra starts the dancing at the far end of the gymnasium. Voices and music mingle with sounds of dancing feet. Time flies. At last the crowds begin to leave. Decorations and booths are quickly torn down. Lights go out, and another S. T. C. circus is no more.

The purpose of this club is to create within the student body and among the members of the club an appreciation of the best in drama; to train members in the art of play production, and to cooperate with other college organizations in the production of plays and other entertainment.

Three ideals are held by the Dramatic Club: to teach the staging of dramatic productions, to create an appreciation of the best in drama, and to serve the school and community.

A play each fall and each spring and a Southside Virginia Dramatic Tournament comprise the Club program.

On November 22, 1935, the combined clubs of Hampden-Sydney College and S. T. C. produced "A Night in August," the story of a romantic young Spanish girl who fell in love with her favorite author. The leads were taken by Frances Britton and Jim Elder.

Shakespeare's lightest comedy, "Taming of the Shrew," was staged on April 3, 1936. All roles were taken by girls in school. The role of the shrew was played by Virginia Agee and that of the tamer, by "Chubby" Gray. A large cast consisted further of: Clara Nottingham, Margaret Pollard, Nan Throckmorton, Elizabeth Carroll, Alpha Lee Garnette, Marjorie Thompson, Carter Beele Munt, Virginia Hooke, Elizabeth Seiber, Mary Lou French, Nancy Gray, Meriel McAllister, Jane Lybrook, Elizabeth George Wilson, Nellwyn Latimer, and Madeline McGlothlin.

Remember my big part. It was so much fun - practicing - I'll invite you out for the weekend when I go to Hollywood.
Love & kisses
Jane.

COTILLION CLUB

The center of our most enjoyable play-times and the scene of our rushiest dances—Cotillion! Two formal dances each year, one in the fall and another in the spring, are sponsored by the club, as well as a dansante as an added feature in the spring.

Membership is limited to two hundred members. Boys and girls from far and wide add to the gaiety of the occasions.

Fall Cotillion on November 2, drew alumnae and guests from many parts of the State. Music for the dance was furnished by the increasingly popular University of Virginia orchestra. The Freshmen were easy to boss! Cries of I'll never forget what fun we had breaking each other at the dances. especially the night when your date had so many dances out with your rival. Don't forget we are coming back next fall and we can stay out as long as we wish.

Then on May 9, came that other grand event—Spring Cotillion—with Harry Reser and his Cliquot Club Eskimos. Besides the formal dance, there was a dansante in the afternoon. That evening at the formal dance the Figure was led by the officers of the club: Martha Nottingham, Grace Eubank, Florence Sanford, Billie Wilkinson.

And now it's all just a delightful memory!

Cile, dear love, regardless of what ever happens
 I'll always love you and think of you as one of the most sincere friends I have. I can't express in words how I feel about you, but I love you and I mean it too. I've enjoyed knowing you these past two years. - They have been grand, haven't they? Remember the good ole bull sessions, truth conferences, days spent in Berkeley (especially at Bradhams)
 and the fine times we've had in Crewe. - its a great little town. Remember the Leap Year weekend - 27! - Royall - Tautilla - blind dates.
 etc - especially EM - don't ever forget that! Now about the time we locked the door of your room

and had a little "secret fun". I'll never forget Frankie - And
 where were you on the Sigma Chi picnic?
 Glad I saw you
 during "food time".

Some people always use up all the room. But I still have room enough to say that I think you're great. I'll always remember your all the parties and other things of fun.

Hi Bee 'reshus!

MARGARETTE ALDREDGE
Danville, Virginia
Primary Education

An able student entered the portals of Farmville when Margaret came to us. Unfortunately for us, she has been here only two years, having transferred from Averette College, Danville, Virginia, at the beginning of her junior year. Enlisting as a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the A. A., she has worked faithfully in these organizations. On proving herself capable of teaching little children, she was given a bid to A. C. E.

Margarette is of the more conservative type of person, choosing to have a small circle of good friends rather than a scant acquaintance of many.

LOUISE BAILEY
Jeffress, Virginia
Elementary Education

And, here, gentle reader, you see one of those genuinely sincere people who just can't help being that way. Not a born mixer, her friendships are limited to a strong circle of true friends.

A. C. E., Y. W. C. A., A. A., Granddaughters' Club, and College Choir all claim her as a member. On the athletic field, the Class of '36 has found Louise a loyal and valuable standby. More than once she has battled shoulder to shoulder with her classmates for the points that made for class athletic superiority.

Loyal, lovable, willing—that's the girl we find Louise to be.

NANCY LEIGH BLAND
Plain View, Virginia
Elementary Education

Quiet, capable, unassuming, independent—that's Nancy Leigh. At all times she is courteous and considerate of those about her. Never the meddlesome or conspicuous type of person, she has continued diligently along in the even tenor of her way.

As a Freshman, she became a member of the A. A. and Y. W. C. A. A good part of her time has been spent with the College Choir, where she has worked well for four years. A genial nature makes her easy to get along with; in fact she knows how to be a friend.

MARGARET ALSOP
Prospect, Virginia
Latin

$\Lambda \Phi \Sigma$; $K \Delta \Pi$; $\Sigma \Pi \rho$

For her excellent scholarship, Margaret was rewarded by membership in Alpha Phi Sigma, Kappa Delta Pi, Sigma Pi Rho, Sodalitas Latina. She is also a member of Y. W. C. A. and A. A.

Coming to us at the end of her Sophomore year from Blackstone College, she quickly adjusted herself to the life here in school.

Some are born to glory in the field of sports; some in the field of knowledge. To Margaret, came that intangible something that put her in the latter class. Extremely modest—even a little shy, her honors have done nothing to change her quiet, unassuming nature.

DOROTHY BILLINGS
Farmville, Virginia
Home Economics

Dorothy didn't have a long road to travel in coming to S. T. C., for she is a citizen of Farmville; however, she has progressed continuously along the winding road of school life. During her Freshman year she became a member of the Y. W. C. A., Cotillion, and A. A. Her Junior and Senior years brought forth from her excellent work on the Y. W. committee for town girls. The fall of 1935 she was elected president of De Ho Ec, an office in which she has served effectively.

Dorothy has the capacity for doing tedious tasks thoroughly and well—an unusual capacity that indicates a prosperous future.

RUBY BLANTON
Guinea Mills, Virginia
Mathematics

$\Lambda \Phi \Sigma$; $K \Delta \Pi$; $\Pi \Gamma M$; Beorc Eh Thorn

Some of us are made to be dashing and careless—others are made to be studious. There is a place in the world for both types; and so, we find Ruby taking a definite stand on the side of the intellectual.

The fact that Ruby is a member of the A. A., Y. W. C. A., Alpha Phi Sigma, Kappa Delta Pi, Pi Gamma Mu, and Mathematics Clubs bears testimony of her sincerity, efficiency and energy. She believes in the old adage that actions speak louder than words, for she reserves her words for times and places where they can be most useful.

IRENE BAILEY
Rustburg, Virginia
Chemistry, Biology

At the outset Irene chose as her major subjects chemistry and biology. Conscientiously and persistently she has followed the line of science, doing work that is exceptionally thorough.

She is a member of the A. A. and Y. W. C. A., and an ever-ready supporter of her class. Possessing a ready smile and a sunny disposition, Irene is always willing to help and never too busy to explain a difficult problem. In our minds there remains this question—will she continue her life as a test-tuber, or will this occupation be overshadowed by her ardent love of cats?

EMMA FENN BINGHAM
Norfolk, Virginia
Education

$\Gamma \Psi$; Beorc Eh Thorn

A brilliant mind and the inclination to achieve! Those merits have won for Emma high scholastic honors. Because of her rare literary ability, she was elected chairman of the May Day Theme Committee, editor of The Handbook, and literary editor of The Rotunda. And, too, because of her versatility, she served the House Council as Vice-President; was an active member of the Dramatic Club, the Y. W. C. A. and the A. A.; and, through conscientious work, gained membership in A. C. E.

Emma is known for her great love of reading—a serious minded girl, given to meditation. As an artist, as a writer, she is possessed with the talents of a genius.

AGNES MEREDITH BONDURANT
Rice, Virginia
French

$B \Pi \Theta$; $K \Delta \Pi$; $\Pi K \Delta$; $\Pi \Gamma M$;
 $\Lambda \Phi \Sigma$; Beorc Eh Thorn

Intellect, athletic ability, and congeniality all make up Aggie's well rounded personality. After becoming a member of the A. A. and the Y. W. C. A., Agnes also joined the Debate Club and Le Cercle Francais. For two years she has worked on The Rotunda staff; first as proof reader and then as associate editor. Because of her intellect Beta Pi Theta, Kappa Delta Pi, Pi Kappa Delta, Pi Gamma Mu, and Alpha Phi Sigma all claimed her as a member. Skill in basketball won a place for her on the Varsity Squad.

Four years—and Agnes has never failed to do an assigned task or to help whenever called on.

Don't forget I'm teaching in your home town next year. I'm expecting you to have the band out to give me a hearty welcome

MARJORIE BOOTON
Luray, Virginia

Primary Education, Art

Π Γ Μ; Α Φ Σ; Γ Ψ; Α Σ Τ

Irrepressible, carefree, and talkative—always good natured and ready to lend a helping hand—that's Booton. Because of her artistic temperament, she has worked diligently on the Publicity Committee of the Y. W. C. A. and has served in the capacity of assistant art editor on THE VIRGINIAN Staff. Le Cercle Francais, the Dramatic Club, A. C. E., Pi Gamma Mu, Alpha Phi Sigma and Gamma Psi also claim her membership.

About her there is an attractive abandon. With her natural flair for cleverness and repartee and with her very cheerful personality she has made many friends. S. T. C. in general will miss her spontaneous humor and unpredictable actions.

LOUISE BRIGGS
Sebrell, Virginia

Pre-Library Course

Always industrious is Louise! No she doesn't let work interfere with pleasure; she just makes worth-while use of her leisure time. She has worked well on the Membership Committee of the Y. W. C. A., and she also belongs to the A. A. Her interest in foreign languages has won her membership in Le Cercle Francais and the Sodalitas Latina.

Modest, shy, and ever a good sport, Louise goes her own independent way, not realizing that her slow, but ever-ready smile makes the day a little brighter for all those who know her well.

KATHERINE CHAPPELL
Drakes Branch, Virginia

Music

Musical-minded Kitty is not well known to all of us, though she is a true friend to those who are really close to her. Gifted with a rare talent for singing, she has done outstanding work in the College Choir and Choral Club. Along other lines, her ability has been recognized by membership in the Dramatic Club and the Association of Childhood Education. Throughout her four years she has been a member of the Athletic Association and Y. W. C. A.

Kitty's attraction for Shannon's seems to have hit the Mark!

HELEN JEFFRESS BOSWELL
Bracey, Virginia
Elementary Education
Α Φ Σ; Π Γ Μ; Κ Δ Π

A certain dignity and reserve accompany Helen as she comes and goes on the campus. Despite this reserve, there is a great amount of capability. When a Freshman, Helen, already a member of the Athletic Association and the Y. W. C. A., was elected representative to the Student Council and a member of the Chapel Committee. In the College Choir, the Choral Club, and the Association of Childhood Education, she has shown marked ability. Her scholarship was recognized by Alpha Phi Sigma and Pi Gamma Mu. As a Senior, she is class treasurer and Senior chaperon.

Helen puts her entire self into whatever she undertakes.

CAROLINE HOUSTON BYRD
Warm Springs, Virginia
Primary Education
Α Σ Α

"Bug" is among those rare girls who dislike gossip, but is invaluable at truth meetings because of her frankness. She is serious as a judge one day; the next, just plain crazy.

Any phase of college life interests her; she was on the House Council her sophomore year, also Intercollegiate News Editor of The Rotunda. Her school spirit crept in as Cheer Leader of the junior class. She was on Panhellenic Council three years. She belongs to the Y. W. C. A., A. A., Cotillion, A. C. E., Choral Club, College Choir. She is now Secretary of the College Choir.

To Bug, happiness means giving her ultimate best to anyone needing help regardless of whether she receives credit or blame for her efforts.

MARGARET WHITEHURST CLARK
Miller School, Virginia
Mathematics

Α Φ Σ; Α Κ Γ; Α Σ Α

Too many fine things could not be said of "Meg"! Her staunch dependability, loyalty, and noble character have won her a cherished place in our hearts. As class Vice-President, she has worked faithfully the past two years. In the Y. W. C. A. she served well and, in her Junior year, became Chairman of the Prayer Committee. A hard worker as Assistant Business Manager and Business Manager of THE VIRGINIAN, Secretary of Mathematics Club, a member of the Choral Club, Dramatic Club, Cotillion Club, Granddaughters' Club, Debate Club, Chapel Committee, and A. A.—Each year "Meg" has become a more vital part of our college through her quiet and effective leadership.

NELL BOSWELL
Bracey, Virginia
Primary Education

Throughout her four years at S. T. C., Nell has made a place for herself, one characterized by willingness and perseverance. She has done what many of us would like to have done, chosen a few activities and stuck faithfully to them. At the head of this list we name the Choral Club and more especially the College Choir in which she has served on the Executive Committee. Nell is also a member of the A. A., Y. W. C. A. and A. C. E.

Maybe Nell's peaceful and pleasant frame of mind can be attributed to the fact, that she has a planned future. We hear a "Virginian" is the lucky one.

MARGUERITE BYRD
Whaleysville, Virginia

History

In the winter quarter of our junior year, we were joined by Marguerite, a transfer from Fredericksburg, State Teachers College. With her entrance she became a member of the Athletic Association and the Y. W. C. A.

Marguerite is the kind of person one enjoys knowing, for she is always the same—always bubbling over with kindness and good fellowship. Her unfaltering good nature is a comfort to the depressed. Even her most casual friends cannot fail to recognize this fundamental goodness. True friendliness then can be said to be one of her admirable attributes.

AUDREY CLEMENTS
Hampton, Virginia

English

Α Φ Σ; Beorc Eh Thorn; Κ Δ Π

When we need something done, whether large or small, we select Audrey—this means not only the task will be accomplished, but skillfully so. She has done outstanding work in Dramatics, not on the staff perhaps, but behind the scenes where one's work often goes unrecognized. She tried athletics as a freshman and made Varsity Hockey Squad, and Class Volley Ball Team. In the Y. W. C. A. she has worked on the World Fellowship Committee. She also belongs to El Circulo Español.

There's a lot in store for Audrey, for success begins with determination, and if she should waver on the way, she'd not be too discouraged nor yet too proud to try again.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you" is not only a belief but a practice with Doris. She believes, too, that a little work does nobody harm, for she's a member of the A. A., Y. W. C. A., Dramatic Club, Le Cercle Français, Sodalitas Latina, and Cotillion Club. She is, also, a Senior Chaperon, Pan-Hellenic Secretary, Business Manager of Tributum Staff, Class Secretary, and a member of the Service Committee of Y. W. C. A. Last year she served THE VIRGINIAN Staff as Assistant Literary Editor, advancing this year to the position of Literary Editor.

Briefly, her record is a full one.

IONE COVERT

English

Slight of stature, dark of hair, with a definite fire in her snappy blue eyes—that's Ione. Don't say that she is the most sociable person ever—She's not! She does as she pleases and cares not what people may think.

A member of the Y. W. C. A. and A. A., yet her greatest interest lies in El Circulo Espanol. She is one of those rare individuals who is unable to learn enough about a subject—this time it's Spanish. Incidentally, we hear she has another interest afloat. She is waiting for her ship to come in, perhaps.

English

Edith, with her cordial greeting and friendly smile, has made her life here a period of work and pleasure combined.

When a Freshman, she became a member of the A. A. and Y. W. C. A., serving on the Membership Committee her Junior year.

During the summer session of 1935 she was news editor of The Rotunda. She is a member of the Mathematics Club, College Choir, and Choral Club. Edith also did good work on the class baseball team her first two years.

She is consistent, studious, and interesting, succeeding in whatever she undertakes.

Ernie has left behind her a warm spot in the hearts of those who have had the pleasure of being intimate with her. Though quiet, at times, there is that contagious chuckle that just will burst forth. While here, Ernie has worked whenever the need arose.

As chairman of the Prayers Committee of the Y. W. C. A. and as a member of the A. A., the Dramatic Club, the Chapel Committee, and the College Choir, she served unusually well. Then, too, as a hall president of the House Council, she showed real power!

Ernie's never failing pleasantness and unruffled outlook on life make her the friendly individual that she is!

ANN ELIZABETH POHLIG
Richmond, Virginia

History

Fate deprived us of the pleasure of knowing Ann until our senior year. Her other three years of college life were spent at William and Mary. However, in the short time she has been here, we have grown to know and admire her.

Ann is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the A. A. She is petite of stature. She makes no show of what she does, but calmly and industriously she carries on.

She is an entertaining individual—one of those people who always do the right thing at the right time.

MARY LEE POWELL
Boykins, Virginia

Elementary Education

To the untrained observer, Mary Lee is quiet, dignified, and reserved—perhaps a little indifferent. To the observant individual and those that know her, she is a jovial soul, full of witticisms and humorous remarks.

Both the Y. W. C. A. and the A. A. claim her as a member. Her talent in music has brought to her membership in the Choral Club. Mary Lee is also found among the chosen few that belong to the Cotillion Club.

She is another one who will not see the necessity of teaching school. Or do our eyes deceive us?

Membership in these honorary fraternities show us at a glance that Virginia is a studious person. It seems that she is a language enthusiast, for she is a member of Le Cercle Français, El Circulo Espanol, Sodalitas Latina, and Dramatic Club.

As a Freshman, she became a member of the Y. W. C. A., serving on the Alumnae Membership Committee. She is also a member of the A. A.

She has the capacity for sitting down and doing tedious tasks thoroughly and well. What an excellent attribute for anyone to possess! She is a conscientious person who works hard and studies hard.

There are those in every community who don't need to resort to the smallness of politics to acquire honors that will bespeak their character. Margaret is one of those whose power and personality have led to success.

She was, from the first, a part of the Y. W. C. A. and the A. A. Because of her excellent work in the Debate Club, she became a member of Pi Kappa Delta, and she is now the proud wearer of the diamond key. She belongs, also, to Sodalitas Latina. And now in her last year she is president of the Dramatic Club.

With deep regret we see Margaret close a chapter in her life of which she has a right to be proud.

EVA TAPELLE PRUDEN

Elementary Education

Tapelle is another person who just came into our midst this year. However, she has become a valuable part of the class. But one has to know her to appreciate her fully. She is capable, however, of holding her own with all types of people.

She is a member of the A. A. and the Y. W. C. A. Because of her excellent ability as a violinist, she became a member of the College Orchestra.

Tapelle is not by nature 'spectacular.' Her interests lie too much in helping willingly those around her. Genial, friendly, and adaptable, she fits in smoothly with any group.

A born athlete! Her record is enviable.

She has "captained" the Class Hockey, Basketball, and Volley Ball Teams. As a member of the Varsity Hockey, Basketball, Tennis and Baseball Squads, she "captained" the Varsity Basketball and Hockey Squads, and managed Tennis for two years. In field and track she was high-point winner and blazer winner. She was Vice-President of the A. A., and a member of the Monogram Club. On The Rotunda Staff she held the positions of Reporter, Assistant Athletic Editor and Athletic Editor. In the Y. W. C. A., she was a member of the Service Committee, Debate Club, and A. C. With a wide and thorough intellect combined with an uncanny ability for what is commonly known as "bulling," Lucy's four years have been for her little or no trouble. Grades just seem to come her way regardless!

Living in town as she does, her activities have been limited to the A. A., the Y. W. C. A., and the Cotillion Club. Incidentally, horseback riding fills a large part of her spare time. Then, too, she never ignores football games, races, boxing, and the like.

Of Lucy be it said—a generous nature, a bit of an optimist, a lover of fun—she lives life for the best there is in it.

Her interest in debating has led her to pledge allegiance to the Debate Club, and higher work in this line has attained for her membership in Pi Kappa Delta. Some day, we hope, she will be a second Stephen Douglas. Her membership in Sodalitas Latina has proved her interest in the classics.

"Smoot," as she is known to us, is the "hail-fellow-well-met" type. Unfortunately for us, she did not come here until her Junior year when she transferred from Harrisonburg State Teachers College.

Kitty is a member of the A. A. and the Y. W. C. A. As a member of the Dramatic Club she has worked unusually hard, and her artistic instinct has won for her a bid to Gamma Psi.

Kitty is a born mixer. Coupled with her genial ways is her courage to face life as it is and never to turn her back on hardships. These qualities give her that happy-go-lucky disposition which we envy.

Elizabeth possesses that calm reserve and quiet dignity to which the world responds.

Her entrance in school brought her membership in both the Y. W. C. A. and the A. A. Because of her talent in the field of music, she became a member of the College Choir to which she has truly given her undivided attention.

Elizabeth is quiet and modest, but she is gifted with both innate ability and sincerity. Her soothing smile and understanding heart have won for her a circle of close friends. Although she has not always been in class headlines, she will be remembered as an able worker.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

To give an accurate account of each important event in our college career would be impossible in so short a space. Let us then hit the high spots that are stamped in our minds and live again a few of our intimate college scenes.

To pursue an academic life, we needed leaders to help us over the bumps we must encounter. Tac Waters, our excellent president for four years, has proved herself most efficient, and she has been assisted by a thoroughly capable staff. No group is complete without a "Classman." To this office Miss Virginia Bedford was chosen.

We were then ready to begin our college routine. However, before being fully initiated, there were a number of things to be done . . . orientation classes . . . learning how to hang six deep over the Rotunda to eavesdrop on dates . . . And Rat Week! Remember carrying alarm clocks, wearing pigtailed and frizzled hair, and bowing to the high and mighty Sophomores? . . . Then being given those crazy blue and white skull caps to wear? . . . To discard them, we had to win the hockey game from the Sophomores on Thanksgiving Day . . . but we lost . . . wore caps until Christmas. . . . The color rush at six in the morning was exciting, though we succumbed to the Green and Whites. . . . Plenty of Freshmen out for athletics . . . nice team-work . . . excellent spirit. . . . Remember "14" and N. B. B. O.? . . . "We're the cutest girls in school" and it's "Nobody's business but ours"? . . . The Dramatic Club was an inspiration to our Kat Cornells . . . and the Choir and Choral Club found a startling number of Galli-Curcis. . . . The Circus and Class production called for a display of talents . . . Pi Gamma Mu instigated a super-attraction this year—Mardi Gras . . . a costume ball, replica of the New Orleans pre-Lenten festival. . . . Founders' day brought back a large number of alumnae and visitors . . . likewise Spring Cotillion . . . May Day . . . and so on till exams . . . and finals.

As Sophomores we were pretty snooty to the Rats . . . "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" method of revenge for the indignities we had suffered. . . . Our first activity was putting "Sing" across with a bang . . . and when Circus time rolled 'round, our cowboys and girls lassoed first honors. . . . Orchids to Florence Sanford as the bare-back rider. . . . The bucking broncho threw her for a loss. . . . The class production was tops. . . . Margaret Farrar's tantalizing tango and Marion Jean Wright's blue notes sent shivers up Ye Olde Spine. . . . Color Rush brought headaches, black eyes, and sprained ankles, and our Red and White banners floating from prominent points . . . won a game, lost a game on Thanksgiving Day. . . . Fall Cotillion "velley," "velley" good . . . "Sudie" began to "J. T." on campus . . . Mardi Gras glamorous again . . . and what a Founders' day . . . our fiftieth anniversary . . . speakers, recitals, banquet, and another added feature—dance—newspaper headlines! . . . Spring Cotillion and much ado. . . . Preparations begin for graduating Sophomores. . . . Kitty Hoyle selected by faculty as salutatorian. . . . Dot Eley, giftorian of the sophomore class. . . . And so endeth another year.

Our advent as Juniors was sad . . . no Miss Jennie to welcome us back. . . . We had lost a valued friend . . . an inspiration to better work! . . . Have you seen the new swimming pool behind the gym? . . . Truly colossal . . . and the man on the flying trapeze at the Circus? . . . Louise Gathright's superb solo accompanied Lelia Sanford's tossing Hennie Salsbury to and fro . . . a mean feature. . . . The usual Thanksgiving festivities gave way to a five-day holiday . . . extra excitement and another set of "Goodbyes" and "Hello agains." . . . Everyone has the knitting craze . . . or else she's roller-skating. . . . Production again a super fête . . . Grace Eubank's trills thrill . . . the mock wedding was a gala climax . . . and let's not forget the amplifier . . . Lucy Potter was elected Mardi Gras queen . . . truly a blonde goddess . . . mob scene at the dance . . . "Car poker" became sensational sport. . . . May Day found us singing on to the May Pole of Merry Mount . . . Spring elections gave Juniors the heads of major organizations . . . Spring Cotillion and Johnny Long brought relief from over-work . . . everyone humming tunes from "Naughty Marietta." . . . Boring term papers and exams interfered with play . . . and play we had to, for next year we'd be Seniors . . . Finals were a bit sadder that year . . . perhaps it was because we were nearing the end.

And now we're back for the last year of study and fun . . . dignified? . . . well, maybe! . . . It's swell being back and joining the mob scene in Shannon's when the urge of the Camels becomes too strong . . . even at ten P. M. . . . Senior privilege . . . Senior Installation . . . marching to the "Alma Mater" in caps and gowns . . . Alpha Kappa Gamma adopted the tap system of bidding members . . . a very impressive service. . . . Guess who the Senior members of Chi are? . . . And instead of having a Senior production, we held a Senior dance—another privilege . . . a superlative affair . . . everyone joining the C. C. C. (Claudette Colbert Club) and cutting bangs—what a complex! . . . And do you remember the amateur show when Grace Eubank brought home the bacon by singing "You Are My Lucky Star"? . . . Popeye, alias Frances Yester, and Olive Oyl, impersonated by Booton, brought down the house at the '36 Circus. . . . The Duke Glee Club and Orchestras put on quite a swanky concert January 9th. . . . The boys were entertained with a ball in the gym afterwards. . . . Martha Nottingham reigned over Mardi Gras with Prince Consort Dave Rice. . . . Then the usual routine of Founders' Day . . . everyone truckin' and wahooing these fine spring days. . . . Government girls find an attraction downtown at "the den of vice" . . . Sing was quite spooky . . . brrr! . . . the rising of spirits from the coffins in the cold, cold vault was enough to make Hitler's teeth rattle. . . . We found out later it was only a portrayal of Senior activities . . . sweet relief. . . . Relax, girls, till exams roll 'round once more . . . and then Commencement . . . the banquet . . . Baccalaureate Sermon . . . Class Day Exercises. . . . And then the misty-eyed group in caps and gowns, with tassels on the right side now, march to the strains of "Alma Mater" for the last time. . . . Well, so long, gang. . . . May we meet again . . . someday . . . somewhere. . . .

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot?" . . .

May 18, 1936.

Dearest Belle,

I'm glad I'm the first person to write an annual - 'cause I got a whole page to myself. Do I feel honored or do I feel honored? I'm also glad I'm writing instead of telling you what I've got to say 'cause you might misunderstand - since my smile betrays me! Really "Baby Duck" you'll never know how much rooming with you this year has meant to me.

Have little "bully sessions" that you have and the way you have trusted me have meant a great deal to me.

I'll never forget them. Thanks a million - Have here come the best part - and its straight from the heart - I think you'll like the swell (the only word in my vocabulary that will express it) just ever. you've got what it takes baby and you deserve the very best that life can offer - And I surely hope that someday you'll find that "best". As a parting wish I'd like for you to remember only the better side of me - if there is a better - (I'm wandering) - And don't forget. I love you most of all.
Stay as sweet as you are right and away!

APPRECIATION

To Dunbar and Daniel, Raleigh, N. C.; to Jahn and Ollier Engraving Co., Chicago, Ill.; to J. P. Bell Co., Inc., Lynchburg, Va., for their help and sincere cooperation in publishing THE VIRGINIAN of 1936;

To Mr. T. A. McCorkle, to Miss Lucile Jennings, and to Miss Virginia Bedford, faculty advisers, for their guidance;

To the student body for its loyal support; and to the entire staff for its untiring efforts.

LELIA SANFORD, Editor

MARGARET CLARK, Business Manager

Janie

'Cille - darling -

We have quite a lot to remember about each other - especially our tête-à-têtes - They were grand - and helped a "heck" of a lot to while away those lonesome hours - I honestly will miss those talks - Please write to me this summer - and I don't mean just stamp an envelope and forget to write - Of course you know why I want you to write - I must hear about Berry - He's such a grand guy, and I love him good - I do wish it were Cotillion again, so I could dance with him all over again - and have you "breaking" each and every time -

I hope you get to House Party this summer - It won't be the same if you don't -

I can't express how much I've enjoyed really knowing you - Words seem too inadequate - but you know I love you

'Cille - dearest -

There are so many things I want to write I hardly know where to begin - We have really had some grand and glorious times ^{this} year - haven't we?? and I'll never forget them - especially Feb. 28, 29 - March 1 - and most of all April 26th - That was a "day of days" - remember this - "It's a wonder you all aren't sick" - "You started me Dreaming" with "Tormented" should be our theme songs - what do you think?? Of course you'll always have a tender spot in your heart for "Stay as Sweet as you are" and "Night and Day" - all in all, ^{everything} turned out O.K. in more ways than one tho' - even tho' we did get kinda' "Tired of it all" - use your imagination here - !!

Really and truly - darling - I think you are one of the sweetest and dearest girls I've ever known - in other words "You're the Top" in more ways than one ^{too} - never forget our "lit - the" talks late at nite - incidentally, if you can't "catch" connection in some of this - pie' blame it on you and "Chandler" - remember you all were serenading me - so to speak

We're jus' gotta have loads of fun on the house party this summer - I can hardly wait for July 10th - and don't forget I want you to come to see me this summer too - we'll try and stir up a little excitement in the small town for a "big town girl" - ha!

Words can't express jus' how much I'm going to miss you next year - you must come back really often - esp. on our anniversary dates - I'll even let you sleep with me if you want to - ha!

Please write to me really after this summer - and Tell me every little thing - and again I want to say you don't have to worry about the "world" knowing anything you've told me or ever will Tell me - Try and forget both my big and little faults and remember the better side of me if there is one -

'Cile,
Please come on the house party
'cause we'll paint
the town red I'll never forget the good times that we have had together!
Stay as sweet
as you are!
Love always Dicie

Again I want to say you're perfectly swell in every way and I'm very proud to have had the pleasure of "playing" with you and I'm also glad we're sisters in ^{the} great fraternity of AET - we have had much fun haven't we?

How about going on a little vacation down toward Providence Forge - what say - yes - me too!!
Remember only "God can make a tree" - If I'm ever lucky enough to have a little cozy home in N - N - I want you ^{with you} to come down and visit me and mine -

I guess I'd better leave a little room for someone else - so until later - "Stay as sweet as you are"
"Night and Day" -

P.S. Beautiful
Keep this straight this summer
"Pit"
My very best love to you of the sweetest girls
I've ever known - "Pit"
"Pitted Pat" or "Pit"

Dearest Lucille -

I've already written in here once, but you're so crazy that I felt I ought to write again. I'm not going to be crazy but am going to be serious - really.
I love you very, very much. Please, Lucille don't forget me and write to me sometime during the summer - I know you won't - but it doesn't hurt to ask you, does it? I am looking forward to seeing you about 50 years from now - and don't forget our handshake - please!
I love you
Leah
